2022 Dependent Scholarship

This scholarship provides financial assistance after high school to dependents of PSE members, including grandchildren, interested in continuing their education. Scholarships are awarded based on many factors including financial need, academic achievement, leadership and service.

Eligibility

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

✓ An IRS-dependent of a PSE member in good standing.

✓ A high school senior or equivalent (i.e., private school, privately tutored, G.E.D., or accredited correspondence school), who plans to enroll, by the fall term following the granting of the scholarship, as a full-time student in an accredited institution. Accredited institutions include universities, community colleges, trade and vocational schools OR

Currently enrolled in an accredited undergraduate institution such as a university, community college, trade or vocational school.

Deadline

The completed application form and supporting information must be returned to the PSE office in Auburn postmarked on or before March 15, 2022.

Checklist

You may wish to use the attached application checklist to ensure you have provided all elements of the application.

Selection Process

Qualified applications are reviewed by the PSE Scholarship Committee. The Committee is comprised of classified school employees who review applications and select winners. The Committee gives the greatest amount of weight to financial need (35 points). Other criteria, in priority order, include: letters of recommendation (15 points), essay, activities, honors and awards, grammar and language, general appearance of material, GPA and transcripts (all receive 10 points each).

Fund Disbursement

The scholarship awards will be paid in the month of September. Scholarship funds are issued by check, drafted to the educational institution and mailed to the recipient for use during the academic year.

PSE reserves the right to revoke the scholarship if it is not used within the academic year or if the award is based on inaccurate information. Unused scholarship funds will be returned to PSE.
